WANTED: MORE PAs FOR CANSKATE

We are looking for a few more experienced skaters to help out at CanSkate. Being part of the PA Program is an incredibly rewarding experience in leadership and community involvement. Skaters will earn $6/hour in Silver Blades gift certificates. Or get credit towards their high school volunteer commitment. PLUS, skaters who commit to a regular PA session at the start of the fall/winter season will earn a personalized Silver Blades club jacket after just 10 hours on the job! To qualify, skaters must be at least 11 years old, and they must have passed at least two of the three STAR 3 tests. Click here for more info or email PA@silverblades.ca. Orientation session is Nov. 15.

APPAREL SALE IS BACK!!!

Our annual Skating Apparel Sale is back and set to take place at the rink on Saturday, November 13.. We'll have a wide variety of gently used practice wear and dresses for competitions/testing that will be for sale on consignment by our members. We are collecting sale items from members now—you can set your own prices, and 80% of the proceeds will go back to you. If you've got stuff to sell, please drop it off in the office at the rink. With the items for sale, please include your email and the amount you would like to price each item. If have any questions, please contact Karin Miskovsky karin@miskovsky.org

IN MEMORIAM

Doreen Berryman 1934-2021

Doreen lived a life giving to others through her devotion to her family and contributions to the community. Doreen was a long-term member of the Silver Blades community and the President of Silver Blades Board for many years. Both her daughter and granddaughter were skaters at the club as well. The Senior Peer Award which is given annually to the Senior skater who is the most sportsmanlike, enthusiastic and committed to the club as voted by their peers was sponsored by Doreen and her family. We offer our heartfelt condolences to her family.
